

A New Vision: Thad Matta and the Rebirth of Buckeye Basketball

Building a winner began in the wee hours of July 7, 2004, when Thad Matta, shortly after officially taking control of the Ohio State mens basketball program, called long-time assistant coach John Groce at 3 a.m. asking where four of the most sought-after recruits were playing summer league basketball that day. At 6 a.m. Matta was on a plane to Teaneck, New Jersey, to watch Greg Oden, Mike Conley Jr., Daequan Cook and David Lighty play. Within a year, all four signed on as Buckeyes. As the No. 1-ranked recruiting class in the country played out their final high school and junior college seasons, Mattas Buckeyes were claiming an outright Big Ten Championship in just his second season. In A New Vision: Thad Matta and the Rebirth of Buckeye Basketball, Dan Wallenberg, the Associate Director of OSUs sports communications department, gives his insiders view of Mattas first three seasons and the arrival of the most talked-about recruiting class in decades.
