

A Short Stories Collection: An Ebook Selection of Short Stories from the Hairdressing Salon. Secrets and Confessions From the Hairdressers Chair. (A Selection ... Short Stories From the Hairdressing Salon)

This is the second of a series of A Selection of True Short Stories From the Hairdressing Salon - adapted from a book of over 60 short stories by Sheila Shannon. Number of Word Pages: 27 Number of Words: 13796 Please note: All collections in this series include a short intro by David Roberts, an (I Am) bio of Sheila Shannon, and a very interesting story of how Sheila decided to go to Beauty School in Montana. Sheila Shannon is a beautician and hairdresser located in the Pacific Northwest just 35 miles south-east of Seattle. In this series, Sheila shares her memories from over 20 years behind the chair in her salon. Some stories are hilarious, and some are sad. But nonetheless they are all true stories and actual happenings from Sheilas days as a hairdresser in Washington State and Beauty School in Montana.. This opener of the series sets the scene and introduces you to Sheila who starts off with a bio (I Am) about herself and her history. Sheila tells of her break up with the love of her life, how she ran off to Jackson Hole, Wyoming to try to get over it, and her decision to go to beauty school back in Montana. We get a personal insight on Sheilas admission to Beauty School and how she handled it. Stories in Collection 2 include: The Letters Sit in the Car To Poo or Not to Poo Whos a Thunk It? The Ring The Boyfriend Number of Word Pages: 27 Number of Words: 13796 Be sure to look out for the next chapter of the series.
