

Not Hit Yet MMA 2011: A Chronicle of 2011, the Most Significant Year in MMA History

This is a collection of articles, commentaries and interviews focusing on the MMA world in 2011, a year like never before. Not since Zuffa bought the UFC have there been more interesting and meaningful decisions and happenings in the sport. The global expansion of the UFC; the emergence of female fighters; retirements of legends Randy Couture and Chuck Liddell; the rise of Jon Jones; and controversies outside the cage including the increase of steroid use are analyzed. Plus discussions with the most influential coaches and fighters in combative sports: Bas Rutten, Freddie Roach, Pat Miletich, Georges St. Pierre, Matt Hughes, Rich Franklin and more.
