

Alabama vs. Georgia September 22, 1962: A Fixed Football Game

Wally Butts and Bear Bryants telephone conversation of September 13, 1962 supposedly revealed Georgia Bulldogs football secrets to their Southeastern Conference football rivals, the Alabama Crimson Tide. My e-book was researched and written, for the most part, from old newspaper records. I have presented a number of sides of a very controversial topic. The Saturday Evening Post article that alleged secrets were given away by the Georgia athletic director to Bear Bryant, the legendary Alabama head coach, became the subject of a $10 million libel suit. It is still debatable whether the two men were discussing crucial game strategy or merely rules infractions, which they stated afterward that they were.
