

Motherless

A WHISPERING VOICE at the BACK of MY MIND REMINDS ME that IVE BEEN THIS WAY for SOME TIME. DEAD, THAT IS. The dead have a very broad view of the living, of actions performed out of sight, of thoughts believed to be private. I would know. Losing both parents is a trial no child should endure, and Marina and Dylan have endured enough. They deserve the one thing I could never give them: a mothers love. A mothers love, and the truth. My children have believed a lie about me for years and years. After all this time I can still feel their hurt in my heart. But the tether holding me to them is frayed from years of neglect ... and I have to find a way to make my confession before it snaps. But when the truth comes out, what other beasts will I unleash? Why do we lie to the children? someone asked me once. To protect them, I answered. How terrible it is that they need protection from me.
