In this standalone sequel to The Beast in Me, catshifter Matt Bartletts been looking forward to a quiet weekend away with his boyfriend (and his boyfriends werewolf pack). But when the presence of all those alpha males sends Matt into heat unexpectedly, nothing but relentless pounding from every single one of them will satisfy the fever. But what will Matts boyfriend think? Warning - this story contains 3,779 words including hot m/m gangbang action and is suitable for adults only!- Excerpt -His tone was meaningful. Even through the noise in his head, Matt understood his meaning. It hit him like a ton of bricks - Jaime understood that he wasnt sick, really, just horny, and hed known someone else with a similar affliction. All his life, Matt had been hoping to find someone who shared his secret, but he never did. This was the next best thing. I think so, said Matt hoarsely, looking at Archer. Is itare youcan he?Jaimes eyes burned. He reached out and stroked Matts flushed cheek, and Matt shivered. Yes, said Archer, looking surprised, but not in a bad way. Of course. Whatever you need. Can you stand? Jaime wanted to know. Matt nodded. He was pretty sure he could do anything. Jaime helped him to his feet and led to over to a tree - just like hed imagined. Matt went weak in the knees, but Jaime was there to catch him. In the background, he heard the noises of the other men standing and coming towards them. Jaime leaned him up against the tree, placing his hands on the trunk, holding him steady. Jack, can you undress him please? Matt felt Archers hands on his fly, unbuttoning and unzipping, dropping his pants and underwear down around his ankles. The werewolves were circling all around him. It occurred to him that this wasnt the first time they had done this, and that hed picked up on that energy as soon as hed set foot in the cabin. That was why he was in heat now, that was why he was so desperate to be with all of them. He lifted his head; Archer was smiling. You wanted this, Matt whispered. All along.
