

RESTRAINED LIBERATION: 1940s Female Domination

Poor Linda loses her parents on a Liberty ship bound for England in 1940. All alone in a war torn England she has to find her way and make do. The doctor on board the ship that rescued her is the first to note her innocence and take advantage of it, closely followed by Sir Frank as he too offers to help her, as long as she does something for him in return. She is then introduced to Geoffrey who can employ her and give her a wage, as long as she makes herself available to him at lunch times of course. Linda is destined to become just another girl trying to make her way in a world full of strong-minded men when she meets Barbara. Tall, statuesque, Barbara shows Linda a different world, one where women dominate and men are there to provide them with pleasure. This story of nine chapters and 27,000 words narrates Lindas development towards that of a dominatrix latex wearing woman who will use and discard men as her pleasure demands. The story includes bondage, anal play & sex, watersport, domination between sexes and lesbian interplay. This book is intended for adult reading.
