

How to Speak Football: From Ankle Breaker to Zebra--an Illustrated Guide to Gridiron Gab (HOW TO SPEAK SPORTS)

From ankle breaker to zebra, How to Speak Football includes over 125 football terms paired with amusing illustrations that decode the words and phrases that fly around the field. The Sidelines sections sprinkled throughout the book will teach you fun trivia about the history of the sport, the stories behind football players nicknames, the most famous touchdown celebrations, and much more! The terms included in the book range from the well-known, like blitz and punt, to the more uncommon such as: -Alligator arms: A term coaches, players, and television commentators frequently use to describe a receiver who keeps his arms protectively tucked in close to his ribs, instead of stretched out to catch the ball. -Chain gang: The officials on the sideline who hold the yardage and down markers. -Pancake: A forceful block, usually by an offensive lineman, tight end, or fullback, that sets an opposing lineman completely on his back, taking him out of play. A fantastic blend of funny anecdotes and entertaining bits of history and trivia, this is the perfect gift book for all the football lovers in your life, fantasy football fanatics, or any of the growing number of fans who are gravitating toward this exciting sport!
