

Activating Your SOUL works: ... A Healing Journey

From angels in the night, to visions of the future, to miraculous healings in the present, Activating Your SOULworks has it all! Take an inspirational journey through the amazing life story of Intuitive Healer, Lauren Heistad. Uncover the monumental moments in her life, learn from her examples, and share in the events that lead to her profound Declaration of Dependence: Today I am making a Declaration of Dependence: I, Lauren Heistad, am a healer and have had lifetimes of experiences to back this up. I am an inspiration to those in need and a teacher to others who aspire to do the same. I share the gift of healing wherever I go and teach the art of creating miracles where my dear friend Jesus left off. I do not work independently. My declaration is dependant on God and the divine spark within us all to manifest change in this world. I work with the angels of God to heal the sick, create abundance, change lives, and bring balance to our dimension. I am an essential component of the divine. And I am here to help heal, change and enlighten the world. This is who I am. This is my SOULworks. The contents held within these pages are blessed with astounding life experiences that will challenge you to ponder and activate your own SOULworks.
