Its Winter of 1870 and love is starting to fall like snowflakes in the lovely city of Portland! This historical series is about empowered women who turn around their hopeless circumstances in this mid-19th-century tale of the old West, with strong faith and discover genuine men and true love. Meet Marian, an orphan that has been taken into the Martins family after her parents died from a horrible fire. She's a free spirit, an adventurer, and wants to do fun things all the time. She even had a reputation for engaging in shenanigans with the children she's taken care of because she's incorrigible. However, she has developed an illness that's threatening to stop her from her gleeful attitude. She has also met the good Dr. Santino, a cousin of the Valentinos, who's so serious and so stiff. She had made a promise to herself that she's going to make Dr. Santino enjoy his life and have a good time. Can Marian's sickness stop her from doing things she wants to do? Will Dr. Santino learn to appreciate her joyous nature? Will a tragedy destroy the close-knit Valentino family? Come to the cold and a bit snowy city of Portland Oregon! Check for expectant mothers and children with our Obstetrician and Pediatrician Dr. Santino Valentino, get to know the happy kids at the orphanage and meet our heroine Marian, whose only passion is taking care of children and a happy-go-lucky attitude that might lead her to find her true love.....a story of hope, fear, romance, suspense and true love.....While this book is part of a series, and it can definitely be read as a standalone book.
