

Current Controversies - Violence in the Media (hardcover edition)

Many parents, lawmakers, and researchers believe that violent movies, television programs, music, and video games contribute to the high rates of violence in American society. Authors debate the issue in the following chapters: How Serious Is the Problem of Violence in the Media? Does Violence in the Media Make Children and Teenagers More Violent? Should Childrens Access to Violent Media Be Restricted? How Should the Problem of Media Violence Be Addressed?

Current Controversies - Violence in the Media (hardcover edition) Violence and the Sacred is a 1972 book by French anthropologist Rene Girard, in which Girard offers hypotheses about cultural order in primitive societies and human communities in general.
