

LPGAs Guide to Every Shot

Let the worlds best female players show you how to hit longer, more accurate shots. From the basic techniques of hitting each shot, to shot selection on the course, to stroke-saving trouble shots, LPGAs Guide to Every Shot covers the entire course, from tee to green. Developed by the worlds leading professional womens golf organization and oldest womens professional sports organization, the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA), the book features the best tour pros and instructors teaching how to execute every shot-making situation using every club in the bag. The dynamic photos in this full-color book bring the instruction to life, making it as attractive as it is useful. Work on your own game by learning how the games best have developed their world-class techniques. Top LPGA Tour professionals outline their keys to success on the golf course: Karrie Webb and Liselotte Neumann show you correct techniques for full-swing irons and woods, Beth Daniel demonstrates fairway bunker shots, and Annika Sorenstam provides insights on course management. Players who are the best address the subjects they know best, giving you an extremely practical yet entertaining look at improving your golf game. And the tour players insights are complemented by tips from instructors who have been named LPGA Teacher of the Year and are Class A certified members of the LPGA Teaching and Club Professional (T&CP) Division. Start improving your game today get the expert instruction from the games top female professionals, found only in LPGAs Guide to Every Shot.
