

MVP

Controversial, argumentative and thought provoking, Cohen analyzes every MVP selection ever made (plus years where none were chosen) and whether they were deserved or should have been awarded to another player! Every year, tens of millions of baseball fans vociferously debate and anxiously anticipate the annual merits of MVP candidates. Controversial, argumentative, and thought provoking, Robert Cohen discusses the awards origin, theorizes on what attributes a Most Valuable Player should possess, and analyzes every selection that has ever been made in each league.
