

You Look Worried - Inspiring and Helpful Advice for Teenagers (Good Advice Book 1)

Essential and inspiring reading for young teens who have concerns or questions about family, friends, school, bullying, drugs, weight, death, sex and sexuality and a range of other issues. If a young teen is worried about any of these issues, this is a heartening book for them read - it will help them feel better about themselves and give them the chance to understand their world and what is going on inside their bodies at this emotional and hormonal time of their life. Sometimes a teen really needs to talk to someone about these things and Mrs Owenlea offers tolerant and gentle wisdom in her easy to read book aimed at young teens and covers many of the concerns which worry them the most. Her many years of teaching have given her an insight into the problems often faced by teenagers and she uses her knowledge and understanding of people, relationships, science and philosophy to discuss some sensitive issues. The sort of advice teenagers need and parents often wish they would receive. Mrs Owenlea includes her email address in the book in case any readers have further issues they'd like to see discussed in future books.
