

Raising Teens In A Toxic World (Lessons Learned Book 1)

There is a toxic pop culture abroad in the world that teaches children that: Sex is sport. Drugs and drunkenness are cool. Violence and Death is entertaining. We see this toxic culture in the movies, on television, in video games. We hear it praised in music and see it lived out in the lives of Hollywood Stars. We also see it in the news broadcasts as they cover massacres like Columbine and Sandy Hook. It is spread through social media websites like Facebook and Twitter. This toxic culture is most appealing to the very young to our children. Young people who don't have the maturity and life experience to separate fact from fiction. We have attempted to counteract this Culture Of Evil with programs in the schools like sex education, drug education, and violence prevention. We have placed police officers (SROs) on many school campuses. As this goes to press, we are seriously discussing arming the administrators and teachers. A number of years ago now, Bill Oliver and his wife walked their fifteen year old daughter into the lobby of a drug treatment program. Walked her is really an understatement dragged her is more accurate. Bill and Vicky looked around that lobby and the school was not there. The Church was not there. The Counselors were not there. It was at that moment on that day that they both realized that their family was their daughters best hope. It had to work. Like Apollo 13, failure was not an option. Because Bills background was training, he developed a Drug Prevention Training Program for parents. It was called Parent To Parent and it became the gold standard for public and private schools, neighborhood parent groups and churches literally around the world. It carried him to the White House, Governors Mansions, and Corporations like Motorola, Texas Instruments, Burlington Northern Railroad, as well as the US Military. It took him to Canada,

The Caymen Islands, Germany, Sweden. It was taught in Australia, Belez, Bermuda, Ireland, and many other countries. This book, Raising Teens In A Toxic Culture, is the culmination of Forty Years work in helping parents counter the Toxic Cultures attack on their families. Much of it follows the basic outline and content of his Parent To Parent Program. It is direct, practical, and is an easy read. It cuts no corners and pulls no punches. You will want to pass it on to friends and family alike. It answers such questions as What Can I Do How Would I Know What If They Ask How Can I Prevent What About The Internet What About Video Games How Much Should I Trust How Do I Set Consequences What Tools Are Available To Help What Pitfalls Do Parents Encounter When Do Kids Where Do Kids What About Single Parents Bill believes that there are two kinds of parents: Those who raise their kids consciously. These parents plan. Those who raise their kids unconsciously. These parents react. This book is designed to produce conscious parents those who know and who know that they know. While it will help all parents, it is a MUST READ for Middle School Parents and younger. Schools cannot raise kids. Parents can. Conscious parents will. Order it now by clicking Here!
