

Left Out: A Christ to the World Radio Drama Series (Volume 1)

In a world filled with healthy, prosperous, and pretty people, it is easy for us to overlook those who do not fit this happy description. Throughout the ages, there have been men and women who for a variety of reasons have been left out of the mainstream of society. They were born into the wrong family. They came into the world with a crippling disease. They made a poor decision somewhere along the way, and for the rest of their lives they suffered at the hands of others. For those who find themselves in this situation neglected or shunned or even treated shamefully a question must certainly be asked: does God care about me? This series of dramas addresses that question.
