

Profiles (GLH Library)

Marian Chester will be home for Christmas?if things go according to plan! After visiting in the West. Marian boards a train for Boston, cradling a lunch basket. To pass the time, she sketches her fellow passengers, including the handsome man across the isle.Stuart Lynde, a lawyer, notices Marian and wonders if her pretty head is a s empty as the girls he knows. He has nearly despaired of ever finding a woman of quality.But neither of them can guess how much unforeseen delay?and the contents of Marions basket?may change more than an earthly destination! The Day before Christmas is but one in this collection of heartwarming, faith-filled stories of days gone by.Heartwarming stories of faith and love by Grace Livingston Hills aunt?Isabella Alden. Each book is similar in style and tone to Hills and is set in the late 1800s and early 1900s.
