

The Rescue

Abena was a young girl who felt that no one cared about her or loved her. On several occasions, she tried to commit suicide, but the urge to live still remained in her. Finally, she made up her mind to end it all by throwing herself down from the third floor of a school block. But her friend Esther just saw her in time! These stories and other stories in this book are true-life experiences, and they come to encourage and educate us on many aspects of life. These true events happened in private, but they are presented to you in boldness and in the open just so you will learn the lesson they learnt and escape as they did or didn't.
