

Latex Slave Sissy Maid : A Transgender Tale of Mind Control and Forced Feminization

Dylan is on the edge, hes gotten drunk and headed down to the railway line, his intention to end his life. What he doesnt bargain for is the intervention of the enigmatic, devious Anita Grey who challenges him and his motives and ends up making him give up his attempt on suicide. She postulates that he wants to end his life because he needs to be controlled, because he cannot deal the the pressures of lifes decisions. She offers him an alternative life, she offers to enslave his mind, to make him essentially a human robot, to be used as a domestic slave, his owners having an impression that he is actually a very realistic robot rather than a person. The offer is tantalizing, feeling like has little choice he finds his way to the Brampton and volunteers to be transformed into a mind controlled slave with no free-will. The resultant treatment means his gender is changed with help of a little pill, and his is fitted with various implants making him utterly controlled and helpless to disobey commands. Finally he is given the appearance of being a realistic, android clad in PVC, rubber and latex, with only his face on show. After being transported to a country house to serve a wealthy Sophie Greenwood everything goes to plan until an unforeseen event. When hes given the choice, of freedom or slavery, what will he choose? To retain his free-will and live a new life, or to submit completely, offering to sacrifice his mind willingly to a life time of slavery?
