

Emma: Annotated with a New Discussion Guide

Now with a New Discussion Guide Jane Austens heroines are often marked by class, grace, and likeability. But for many readers, Emma Woodhouse is the antithesis, as far from Austens other heroines as possible. The truth is that Emma is wildly flawed and frankly, a bit on the infuriating side. Of course, thats also what makes her so endearing. Join the Book Club In this new, discussion edition well explore what we can all learn from Jane Austens flawed, yet lovable character, and we hope that by the end, well all be a little more comfortable in our own skin.
