

Tales of the White Boar: Short Stories and Poems About Richard III

A short anthology of stories and poems about Richard III and the people in his brief and tumultuous life. A positive fictional look at the life of England's most misunderstood monarch. Here are stories ranging from historical fantasy, where the 7 year old Richard meets a ghost the day before the sack of Ludlow; to an account of his part in the marriage celebrations of his nephew the young Duke of York to Anne Mowbray...where he may have first met the Duke of Buckingham; to a first-person story from the point of view of Anne, Richard's wife, when the royal couple visited Scarborough just a few months after their sons death; and finally a humorous piece about Harry Stafford, Duke of Buckingham, whose ghost is said to haunt the Debenhams shop in Salisbury.
