

CUSP: A New Way to Walk An Old Path

YOU can create long term, positive change in your life and manifest the life you want to live. There is no need to accept excuses or limitations anymore if you are willing to apply yourself to the process. Since 1997, Eric and Katrina Rasbold have used the CUSP spiritual path, which they personally constructed, to create positive, long term life changes and manifest their personal goals. Now, they share with you the principles of CUSP and teach you step by step how to employ this magical and effective system, regardless of your own personal religion or spiritual path. You will learn how to appropriately and pro-actively work with the energies of the eight traditional holidays of the ancient agricultural cycle to harvest a new life each year. This book will teach you to tune into the natural cycles that have been woven into the fabric of our DNA over literally thousands of years of human life. The flow of Universal energy is already at work in your life and this book will show you how to tune into its guidance and work with your own Greatest Good and lifes mission to create the life of your dreams. Planting in the Spring, laboring in the Summer, harvesting in the Fall, and resting through the Winter have been the pulse of human life since the nomads settled into villages. Now, you can use that same rhythm that still vibrates through our collective consciousness, to harvest your own goals, effectively becoming a spiritual farmer. Most adults learn to program themselves out of expectations of living a magical and fulfilling life. Take a moment and remove the protective walls you built up around your hopes and dreams. Consider how you want your life to be different in a years time or two years time or five years time. Do you want to be more in touch with your own spirituality? Do you want a new vocation, new home, or higher level of prosperity? Do you want to attract healthy interpersonal relationships? Have you settled too much and become comfortable with living a mediocre life because you dont know where to start in the process of manifesting change? If you are like the majority of people in our society, you have trained yourself to not even want anymore because you resist engaging a cycle of disappointment, resentment, and frustration. The key is in working cooperatively with Divine Energy and opening yourself up to the process of pro-active manifestation. What you want, wants YOU. You just have to learn how to get all of your horses - meaning the different energies at work in your life - pulling in the same and appropriate direction. Once you effectively tune into the natural energies at work in your life and step into the flow, you will begin to see changes almost immediately. All you have to do is step into the zone! What this process needs in order to work is a willing spirit and an open mind. If you are not happy with your life, if you do not greet every day excited for the blessings and miracles it will bring, if you feel oppressed and defeated as though you will never life a wonderful and sacred life, this book is for you. Let go of the negative assignments you have placed on your life such as God must hate me or I always fail - why should I even try? or I will never be happy and step into your own empowerment. This book will tell you how to take charge of your own future and begin working NOW to create the life you want to live.
