Over 135,000 words. Save 50% off individual prices. Includes three full novels set within the Civil War decade plus two bonus short stories that follow the Watson/Jones family from slavery to freedom. The Candle Star After a tantrum, Emily Preston is shipped from her plantation home to her inn-keeping uncle in Detroit. There Emily meets Malachi, son of freed slaves, who challenges many ideas she grew up believing. But when Emily stumbles upon two runaways hidden in her uncles barn, she finds that old ways die hard. And Mr. Burrows, the charming Southern slave catcher, is only yards away, lodged in the hotel. Broken Ladders Hannah craves excitement, but all local adventures dried up long ago, when her parents unpacked their wagon on the Michigan frontier. Then war breaks out and her father and brother leave to fight the Confederacy. Hannah is left at home chaffing under the boredom of never-ending chores until the farm is threatened. The one place she longs to leave suddenly becomes the one place she'll risk everything to save. Beneath the Slashings After four uncertain years of war, twelve-year-old Grace Nickerson is desperate to patch together what is left of her community and return to some sense of normalcy. But soon after his return, her father sells the farm and drags the family off to a lumber camp in Michigan's northern wilderness. Will Grace ever find the peace and security she knew before the war?
