

The Sleepwalkers

Is there a deliberate attempt to keep Americans distracted and pacified as lambs being led to proverbial slaughter? What will it take to shake them awake? Living lives of convenience and instant self-gratification, American sleepwalkers are numbed, dumbed, and blind to the threatening shadows that the nation is being surrounded by. Like millions of metaphorical zombies they exist in a matrix of drinking, drug use, gambling, computer games, smartphones and all manner of multi-media entertainment. A single thread ties these various demographic groups together, and its their obliviousness to the nations collapsing economy and vanishing sovereignty. Theres a darkness that is sweeping America and the world, and these individuals are collectively blinded to it through self-medication and by The Powers That Be through the mainstream news media. The darkness is as much supernatural as natural, and seemingly only a few watchmen can see it coming. A Christian man named Jeff Seagraves toils in a busy convenience store serving those who choose to stay asleep, and while hes awake and aware those who slumber appear to enjoy a higher quality of life and a greater sense of freedom. As they wallow in the trappings of modern convenience and swallow the lies that the government and media feed them, Jeff suffers from anxiety, depression, fear and worry as he struggles to make ends meet. His faith is strong, but he isnt free. Could the roots of his failure and despair be as much supernatural as natural? Could much of his malady be linked to his past? Jeff relies on the alternative media and YouTube for his news as the mainstream channels do nothing but facilitate the spread of the darkness. Will he encounter a mysterious messenger on YouTube who has inside knowledge as to coming events that will radically change America? Will there be an event that will shake the sleepwalking populace into consciousness? Will Jeff ever be delivered of his own darkness and used by God to be a source of light when seemingly all light has been extinguished?
