

Recommendations of the Committee for Waterfront Structures, Harbours and Waterways (Eau 1990)

This sixth English edition of the EAU has been prepared on the basis of the eight German EAU version and also includes the 1990 Annual Engineering Report. The recommendations contained have been recognized as international guidelines through the Notification Procedure of the EEC Commission 1991/117/D. These guidelines are employed in work involving engineering planning, design, invitation for bids, award of contracts, execution of construction and settlement of accounts for harbour and waterway projects.
